Hello everyone,

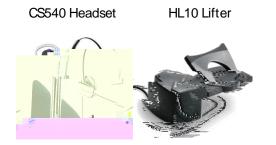

Now that your department has the new Cisco phones, there have been several inquiries regarding compatible headsets. The following information will give you the details on the Brand name, Model number and accessories you will need depending upon which phone you are using.

If you would like to order a headset, please submit a special order requisition.

The recommended headset is a Plantronics wireless headset system Model #CS540 sold by Nexus. This system works with both phone models and includes the charging base and headset. The headset can be attached to an ear loop (comes with 2 different types) or a head strap, so you can choose which one you prefer.

, you will order the CS540 Headset and the HL10 Handset Lifter.

you will order the HL10 Accessory Kit.
